WISDOM's Recognition (RPL) Process is

Flexible

- We provide flexibility in the assessment process to best meet your individual and organisation's needs
- The recognition assessment can be held at your organisation at a time that suits you including outside standard work hours if required
- We provide a range of practical options to allow you to demonstrate your experience, skills and knowledge.

- We work with you to guide you through the recognition assessment process.
- We will assess you together with a group of your colleagues at the same time.
- We spend time with you in your workplace to support you in gathering documents and other evidence for your assessments.

Supportive

Achievable

- Our streamlined and supportive assessment approach ensures you are given the opportunity to achieve recognition for all your existing skills and knowledge.
- We minimise the time and resource impact on you and your workplace.
- We provide a learning, supportive and fun assessment experience that may enable you to achieve a nationally recognised qualification.

- Our recognition process is efficient and accessible with time and resources savings through our flexible and practical approach
- Our approach also minimises the impact on individuals and the workplace with the evidence gathering workload for participants' and work 'down-time' kept to a minimum.

The WISDOM Recognition Assessment Process is designed to provide a sensible, flexible and supportive solution for experienced staff to achieve recognition for their existing skills and knowledge.

Our supportive and flexible recognition assessment process ensures participants are not 'left out on their own' or asked to gather mountains of documents and attend harrowing interviews; is designed specifically to provide a supportive, achievable and efficient process for individuals and organisations.

The process is based on:

- ▲ A minimum of six participants undertaking recognition together
- ▲ All participants applying for recognition for the same qualification with the same units of competency
- ▲ All participants attending the same assessment workshop

WISDOM offers this innovative recognition assessment process for a broad range of qualification from the following training packages:

- Government
- Business Services
- Training and Assessment
- Real Estate

Fee

WISDOM's innovative and streamlined recognition assessment process means that participants can save up to 40 - 50% on the cost of the training course.

The fee for the WISDOM Recognition Assessment Process will depend on the qualification selected.

WISDOM can provide a quote upon request.
